What uniform stuff do I buy/not buy and from where?

There are plenty of places online (www.scoutstuff.org), but it is worth going to the Crossroads Council building. Besides uniforms/patches, they have a lot of neat camping, pinewood derby and interesting scout stuff. And the staff is very good with helping you get the right size shirt and patches.

Buy

- Shirt – most everyone goes a little large on size so you do not have to buy a larger shirt later for your growing Cub Scout. Youth medium is generally recommended (note the American flag comes attached to the shirt).

- Crossroads Council patch – either is fine the first one costs a little less or

- Pack Number 132, red patches with white numbers

- World Scouting Crest Emblem

Recommended to buy

- Belt – recommend as scouts will be earning adventure belt loops. The belt is sized to hold the adventure loops

Optional to buy - hat, pants, socks

Do NOT buy – these are supplied by Pack 132

- Book

- Neckerchief

- Neckerchief slider

- Den number patch

Veteran Unit Bar

- Badges and adventure belt loops

How do I attach all this to the shirt?

- The patches are NOT iron-on.
- Sew them on if you are good with a needle and thread
- Patch adhesive – we have heard a lot of good things about Badge Magic
